Detlef Hartmann, and a son of classes,
Petitioner,

v.

Brady, et.al.,
Respondents.

No. 06-340-

2007 APR -6 PM 4:15

CLERK'S OFFICE
FEDERAL DISTRICT COURT
STATE OF DELAWARE

Motion For Extension of Time To File Amendment
For This Case

Petitioner requests this Honorable Court for an extension of 30 days from receipt of this Motion for the following reasons for Amendment:

1. Unexpected, excessive legal case load. Severe case load to Petitioner is needed for timeliness and to attain relief from many, severe, illegal prison conditions as per Complaint and to be brought, but can not due to handicaps, obstructions, denials and disabilities caused by Defendants/ Respondents, as per Complaint starts to show.

2. Inmate's pro se status, His impaired mental health, and his use of psychotropic medications constituted good cause for extension. Weekley v. Jones, 927 F2d 382, 385-6 (8th Cir 1991)

3. Debilitating medical and mental health conditions continue to deny Petitioner to file Amendment in a timely manner. For one symptom, Petitioner needs to sleep 15 hours a day which of course, effects His daily, major life activities, due to degenerative prison conditions, and legal work needing doing before accelerated death occurs to Him, as is already occurring to Him, as is debilitation under these Defendants/ Respondents.

If any more information is needed to appoint counsel, please inform. Refer to record to avoid repetition.

I pray for relief. In Service To God And Country,

Dated: April 2, 2007
